urban living interiors introduce to the UK, design-led, contemporary furniture from the house of Casamilano. 100% Italian, all the pieces are designed and manufactured in Italy urban living interiors has been appointed as exclusive UK stockists for Casamilano one of Italy's most respected furniture houses. Internationally renowned designers have contributed to the extensive collection of this small family run company founded in 1998. From spring 2015 urban living interiors will dedicate the upper level in the Great Portland Street showroom to exhibiting furniture and lighting from the collection. The collection comprises sofas, chairs, dining and coffee tables, lamps and mirrors. Essential shapes and clean lines are interpreted using materials including ebony, oak and ash, chromed steel, bronze and aluminium fusions, and a wide range of leathers and velvets.

Editors notes:

urban living interiors led by Mark Riese, is one of London's leading interior design studios providing private clients with elegant solutions for their internal architecture and interior design. They also work with leading property developers and estate agents on delivering exceptional and unique show homes. Their retail arm, recently opened in Fitzrovia, sells luxurious, contemporary furniture and home accessories many of which are exclusive in the UK.
